TOWN OF BAYVIEW, TX BANS LOCAL CHURCH AND SCHOOL FROM ITS OWN PROPERTY

Attorneys File Lawsuit Against Bayview, TX, Alleging Violations of the Constitution, Federal, and State Law.

BAYVIEW, TX, July 22, 2014—Today, retired Texas Supreme Court Justice Raul Gonzalez, the law firm Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, LLP, the law firm Colvin, Chaney, Saenz & Rodriguez, LLP, and Liberty Institute, on behalf of the Cornerstone Church by the Bay, its pastor Hamilton Musser, and the Laguna Madre Christian Academy, filed a lawsuit against the Town of Bayview, TX, for enacting an illegal zoning ordinance prohibiting the church and religious school from operating on its own property. The attorneys claim the town's ban is unconstitutional and violates state and federal law. "Hostile discrimination targeted against a church violates the Constitution, and federal and state law," said Mike Berry, Liberty Institute Senior Counsel. "Bayview should cease with its efforts to ban this church and immediately repeal its unconstitutional and illegal zoning ordinance."

For years, Cornerstone Church by the Bay had to rent space to hold services. Recently, however, it acquired property in Bayview that it wants to use as a church and school. But in June 2014, in an action targeting the church's use of its property, the Bayview Board of Aldermen unanimously voted to enforce a zoning ordinance that completely bans churches and schools from the area where Cornerstone Church owns property—despite allowing similar nonreligious institutions in that exact same area.

"Bayview cannot prohibit religious institutions while blessing similar institutions that are nonreligious," said Prerak Shah, an attorney at Gibson Dunn. "The town's actions not only harm Cornerstone Church, they desecrate a cornerstone of our Constitution. This type of blatant discrimination against religious institutions by a heavy-handed government is what led our Founders to enact the First Amendment in the first place."

The Complaint filed in federal court today states that Bayview's discriminatory zoning ordinance violates the federal Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act, the Texas Religious Freedom Restoration Act, the U.S. Constitution, and the Texas Constitution. It also asks the court to declare the law illegal and prohibit Bayview from enforcing it.
