REASONS WHY THE SUPREME COURT SHOULD HEAR AND RULE IN FAVOR OF AARON & MELISSA KLEIN:

01

The State of Oregon forced Aaron and Melissa completely out of business by imposing a $135,000 penalty, forcing them to choose between their faith and their livelihood.

02

The Constitution protects expression, whether popular or not. The government cannot punish or bankrupt a business just because the owner's religious beliefs are unpopular.

03

According to the Constitution, the government cannot compel business owners to speak a message contrary to their religious beliefs. So, freedom of expression for Aaron and Melissa is freedom of expression for every American.

04

Recently, the Supreme Court issued a ruling reminding government officials everywhere that they must be neutral and respectful of the religious beliefs of all American citizens.

05

The Supreme Court has repeatedly ruled that the government cannot force private citizens to speak messages with which they disagree.

06

In protecting unpopular religious beliefs, we defend America's historic commitment to serving as a refuge for religious freedom - and today, that commitment extends to Aaron and Melissa and their right to run their business according to their religious convictions.
